

SOUTHWEST UTAH PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Job Description: INTERN – St. George or Cedar City

Division: Health Promotion

General Purpose:

Intern will perform a variety of duties in various health promotion programs that exist to encourage proper nutrition, increased physical activity, prevention of tobacco use, and prevention of injury.

Supervision Received:

Works under the general supervision of the Director of Health Promotion.

Essential Functions:

Including but not limited to; assisting the division in the following:

- Performing needs assessments - assessments used to determine community needs and improve existing programs.
- Establishing plans - review assessment data and establish appropriate plans and design or improve existing programs to address community needs.
- Evaluate - evaluate the effectiveness of health promotion programs.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Degree seeking student from a college or university (health related field preferred).
- Desire to learn about the public health field.
- Willing to work up to 300 hours.

Compensation - unpaid internship.

How to apply - send your resume to Kye Nordfelt at knordfelt@swuhealth.org.